

----- Original Message -----

> From: "Kelly Conrad" <kelly.conrad.hg7z@statefarm.com>

> To: <bobdaviesagent@cox.net>

> Subject: RE: Bob Davies

>

> Hi, Richard, hope everything is getting back to normal where you live...

> As we Southwest Floridians learned a couple of years ago after Hurricane

> Charley hit, just because the devastation is no longer in the news, > doesn't mean everything is okay again. Hurricanes, as well as wild > fires, wreak havoc that lasts a long time. I hope you are doing better > than the last time we spoke...

>

> We were very happy with Bob Davies presentation. He has a very unique and > powerful style. We did feel that he gave > our agents several different tools and techniques to take back to their > offices, specifically the concept of the Behavioral Contract. He was > definitely high-energy and dynamic. His examples/illustrations of the > concept that you cannot trust your perceptions were particularly helpful > and appropriate for our group. I saw heads nodding throughout his > presentation, which is a good sign that people were engaged. He also > stressed accountability, which is very important, given that all of our > agents have team members in their offices who are responsible for > reaching specific production goals.

>

> I hope this information helps. Sorry it's taken me so long to respond. I > had another two-day conference on the heels of this one, and my schedule > is just now beginning to slow down.

> Thank you so much for all your help throughout this process!

> Take care, and let me know if you need any additional information.

> Kelly

>